Keasy was born on Oct. 3, 2017 with a giant mole covering most of her back, half her tummy, diaper area down both legs to her knees. Only 1 in 500,000 kids have skin like Keasy. An MRI later showed that Keasy has spots on her brain as well, leading to an even more rare sister condition. Due to these conditions, Keasy has suffered seizures, her last seizure was in 2019. Keasy has also had melanoma related to her condition. Keasy had to undergo extensive treatment and has thankfully been in remission since 2021. Keasy has an extensive medical team that works hard to keep her safe & healthy. Currently there is no cure for either of Keasy's conditions. Hailee has raised over $6,000 to help find a cure for Keasy and kids alike. Stop by the lemonade stand for a refreshing drink & treat and help Hailee raise even more money to donate to research for kiddos with GCMN, Giant congenital melanocytic Nevi and NCM (Neurocutaneous Melanosis). There will also be a table of Pokemon, basketball & football cards for sale.
